SECTION 1 – INTRODUCTION

1.1 – THE COMPANY – CODE OF ETHICS

As an Owner of a Surge365 Vortex website, I represent, warrant, promise and agree that:

- I will be courteous, respectful, honest and fair in all my dealings while acting as an Owner, and I will perform my business activities in a manner that will enhance my reputation and the positive reputation of Surge365. I recognize that the founders of Surge365 have strong personal convictions regarding the ethical conduct of all Owners.
- I will not engage in any deceptive or illegal practice.
- I will make no claim for products, services or business positions of Surge365 except as contained in official literature of Surge365.
- I will not misrepresent, or make any representations or warranties concerning, the income potential of the Owner Compensation Plan. It is impossible to predict Owner income. The success of an Owner depends on many variables, such as the amount of time and effort committed to his/her business and his/her organizational abilities.

- I understand and agree that I am solely responsible for all financial and/or legal obligations incurred by me in the course of my business as an Owner including self-employment taxes, income taxes, license fees, etc.
- I understand that I am an independent contractor for all legal purposes and for all federal and state employment and tax purposes. The Owner acknowledges and agrees that they are not guaranteed any income, profits or success by virtue of independent contractor status with the Company, and the Owner certifies that no such representations or warranties have been made. Owners shall not make any false or misleading statements about the business opportunity

1.2 – POLICIES AND COMPENSATION PLAN INCORPORATED INTO AGREEMENT

These Policies and Procedures, in their present form and as amended at the sole discretion of the Company are incorporated into, and form an integral part of the Company's Agreement with its Owners. Throughout these Policies, when the term "Agreement" is used, it collectively refers to the Owner Applications and Agreements, these Policies and Procedures, Company's general commission plan, and Company's Business Entity Registration Form (if applicable). These documents are all incorporated herein by reference (all in their current form and as amended by the Company from time-to-time in its sole and absolute discretion). It is the responsibility of each Owner to read, understand, adhere to, and ensure he or she is aware of and operating under the most current version of the Agreement.

1.3 – PURPOSE OF POLICIES

Reference is made throughout this document to the term Vortex Owner ("Owner") of which is more fully defined in the Glossary of this document. The Company offers its products and services through Owners. It is important to understand that personal success and the success of fellow Owners depend on the integrity of the men and women who offer our products and services. To clearly define the relationship existing between Owners and the Company, and to explicitly set a standard for acceptable business conduct, the Company has established this Agreement. The Company's Owners are required to comply with the Agreement as well as all federal, provincial, state, and local laws governing their business and their conduct. Please review the information in the Agreement carefully. It explains and governs the relationship between the Owner, as an independent contractor, and the Company. If there are any questions regarding any policy or rule, do not hesitate to seek an answer from the Company.

1.4 – CHANGES TO THE AGREEMENT

Because federal, provincial, state, and local laws, as well as the business environment, periodically change, the Company reserves the right to amend the Agreement and its prices at its sole and absolute discretion.

By signing the Application and Agreement, the Owner agrees to abide by all amendments that the Company elects to make. Amendments shall be effective upon publication in the Companies back office.

The Company shall provide or make available to all Owners a complete copy of the amended provisions by one or more of the following methods: (i) posting on Surge365's official website via the Surge365 Back Office; (ii) electronic mail (e-mail); (iii) fax-on-demand; (iv) inclusion in Surge365 periodicals; (v) inclusion in product orders or bonus check mailings; or (vi) special mailings. The continuation of a Surge365 business or an Owner's acceptance of bonuses or commissions constitutes acceptance of any and all amendments.

1.5 – DELAYS

The Company shall not be responsible for delays or failures in performance of its obligations when performance is made commercially impracticable due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control. This includes, without limitation, strikes, labor difficulties, riot, war, fire, death, telecommunication failures, curtailment of a party's source of supply, or government decrees or orders.

1.6 – POLICIES AND PROVISIONS SEVERABLE

If any provision of the Agreement, in its current form or as may be amended, is found to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, only the invalid portion of the provision shall be severed and the remaining terms and provisions shall remain in full force and effect. The severed provision, or portion thereof, shall be reformed to reflect the purpose of the provision as closely as possible.

1.7 – WAIVER

The Company never gives up its rights to insist on compliance with the Agreement and with the applicable laws governing the conduct of a business. No failure of the Company to exercise any right or power under the Agreement or to insist upon strict compliance by an Owner with any obligation or provision of the Agreement, and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms of the Agreement, shall constitute a waiver of the Company's right to demand exact compliance with the Agreement. Waiver by the Company can be effectuated only in writing by an authorized officer of the respective Company. The Company's waiver of any particular breach by an Owner shall not affect or impair the Company's rights with respect to any subsequent breach, nor shall it affect in any way the rights or obligations of any other Owner. No delay or omission by the Company to exercise any right arising from a breach shall affect or impair the Company's rights as to that or any subsequent breach. The existence of any claim or cause of action of an Owner against the Company shall not constitute a defense to Company's enforcement of any term or provision of the Agreement.

2.6 – TERM AND RENEWAL OF OWNER WEBSITE

The term of the Owner Agreement is month-to-month from the date of its acceptance by the Company.

SECTION 3 – OPERATING YOUR BUSINESS

3.1 – ADHERENCE TO COMPANY'S COMPENSATION PLAN

Owners must adhere to the terms of the Company's commission plan as set forth in the Company's literature.

3.2 – ADVERTISING – GENERAL

All Owners shall safeguard and promote the good reputation of the Company and its products and services. The marketing and promotion of the Company, Company's products and services shall be consistent with the public interest, and must avoid all discourteous, deceptive, misleading, unethical or immoral conduct or practices. To promote the products and services the Company offers, Owners must use only the promotional materials and sales aides produced by the Company. The rationale behind this requirement is simple: The Company has carefully designed its services, products, product labels, and promotional materials to ensure that each aspect of the Company is fair, truthful, substantiated, and complies with the vast and complex legal requirements of federal and state laws. If Surge365 Owners were allowed to develop their own sales aides and promotional materials, notwithstanding their integrity and good intentions, there is likelihood that they would unintentionally violate any number of statutes or regulations affecting the Company's business. Accordingly, Owners must not produce their own literature, advertisements, sales aides and promotional materials, or Internet Web pages. The Company will limit purchases of any sales tools or aides to comply with the exemption requirements set forth in any state law regulating business opportunities, including Connecticut, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah and Washington. Additionally, the Company does not accept any liability for products purchased or obtained from a third-party vendor. The Company does not permit Owners to create side-businesses selling sales aides, business cards, marketing websites or similar materials to other Owners of the Company. Should an Owner have materials he or she would like the Company to review please submit sample(s) via email to compliance@surge365.com.

Additionally, Owners are prohibited from making direct, indirect or implied medical or other claims regarding the prevention, treatment, cure or mitigation of any disease from the use of Company products. You may not:

- 1) Make any representation (oral, written or otherwise) about Company products which violate the provisions of these Policies and Procedures.
- 2) Discuss or make warranties, representations or statements concerning Company products in a manner that violates the provisions of these Policies & Procedures.

- 3) Use or distribute, for the purpose of marketing products or in promotion of the Compensation Plan, materials which violate the provisions of these Policies & Procedures.
- 4) Re-label or in any manner alter the label of any Company product. Additionally, Owner must not repackage or refill Company products and must sell Company products in their original, unopened containers.
- 5) Use third-party individuals, business entities and/or organizations in any deceptive or misleading manner in connection with the promotion of Surge365 products.

3.3 – INTERNET WEBSITES AND E-MAIL COMMUNICATIONS

If an Owner desires to utilize an Internet Web page to promote his or her business, he or she may do so through Surge365's replicated website program only. No Owner may independently design or have designed a website using the names, logos, or product descriptions of the Company or which otherwise promotes (directly or indirectly) the Company's products. An Owner may not use "blind" ads on the Internet making product or service claims, which are ultimately associated with the Company's products. Should an Owner register a Surge365 URL address or domain name linking to a Company site with a search engine or other Internet advertising website the keywords cannot include or incorporate vendor names, trademarks, individual resort property names, or misspellings of the service marks for use in any form of search engine referencing. Additionally, branded keywords must be listed as negative keywords on search campaigns. Owners will be liable for any and all fines, damages, and other actions taken against the Company for violations to this policy.

3.4 – E-MAIL COMMUNICATIONS – UNSOLICITED E-MAIL

The Company may periodically send commercial emails to Vortex Owners (e.g. weekly newsletters or emails with information that applies to the conducting of business). By entering into the Agreement, the Owner agrees to receive such emails, and may opt out or unsubscribe at any time by using the contact information included in every email.

The Company does not permit Owners to send unsolicited commercial e-mails unless such e-mails strictly comply with applicable laws and regulations including, without limitation, the Federal CAN SPAM Act. Any e-mail sent by an Owner that promotes the Company, the Company's opportunity, or the Company's products and services must comply with the following:

- a) There must be a functioning return e-mail address to the sender.
- b) There must be a notice in the e-mail advising the recipient that he or she may reply to the e-mail, via the functioning return e-mail address, to request that future e-mail solicitations or correspondence not be sent to him or her (a functioning "opt-out" notice).
- c) The e-mail must include the Owner's physical mailing address, (i.e. not a P.O. Box) and may not represent that the e-mail is originating from the Company or that the e-mail is signed by any employee or officer of the Company.
- d) The e-mail must clearly and conspicuously disclose that the message is a commercial advertisement or solicitation.
- e) The use of deceptive subject lines and/or false header information is prohibited.
- f) All opt-out requests, whether received by e-mail or regular mail, must be honored.
- g) Owners shall not make offers or solicitations in the guise of research, surveys or informal communication, when the real intent is to sell products or services.

h) Owners shall provide individual consumers the option to terminate any further communication between the Owner and the consumer and if any consumer requests Owner cease communication, the Owner shall immediately stop communicating upon such request.

i) Owners must abide by all laws and regulations regarding electronic communications.

j) Owners may not distribute content by use of distribution lists or to any person who has not given specific permission to be included in such a process; spamming or distribution of chain letters or junk mail is not permitted.

k) Owners may not distribute content that (i) is unlawful, harassing, libelous, slanderous, abusive, threatening, harmful, vulgar, obscene or otherwise objectionable, (ii) could give rise to civil liability, (iii) violates any applicable local, state, federal or international law or regulation or (iv) describes the Company or and of its products and services in an inaccurate manner.

3.5 – TELEMARKETING TECHNIQUES

The Federal Trade Commission and the Federal Communications Commission each have laws restricting telemarketing practices. Both federal agencies (as well as a number of states) have “do not call” regulations as part of their telemarketing laws. Although the Company does not consider Owners to be “telemarketers” in the traditional sense of the word, these government regulations broadly define the term “telemarketer” and “telemarketing” so that an inadvertent action of calling someone whose telephone number is listed on the federal “do not call” registry could cause an Owner to violate the law. Moreover, these regulations must not be taken lightly, as they carry significant penalties - up to $11,000 per violation for violation of the FTC’s Telemarketing Sales Rule, 16 C.F.R. Part 310 – and even harsher penalties in some states. Therefore, Owners must not engage in telemarketing in the operation of their business. The term “telemarketing” means the placing of one or more telephone calls to an individual or entity to induce the purchase of the Company products or services. Cold calls made to prospective customers or Owners that promote either the Company’s products or services constitute telemarketing and are prohibited. However, a telephone call(s) placed to a prospective customer or Owner (a “prospect”) is permissible under the following situations:

a) If an Owner has an established business relationship with the prospect. An “established business relationship” is a relationship between Owner and a prospect based on the prospect’s purchase, rental, or lease of goods or services from Owner, or a financial transaction between Owner and the prospect within the eighteen (18) months immediately preceding the date of a telephone call to induce the prospect’s purchase of a product or service.

b) The prospect’s personal inquiry or application to the Owner regarding a product or service offered by the Company, within the three (3) months immediately preceding the date of such a call.

c) If Owner receives written and signed permission from the prospect authorizing a call. The authorization must specify the telephone number(s) which Owner is authorized to call.

d) Owner may call family members, personal friends, and acquaintances. An “acquaintance” is someone with whom Owner has had at least a recent first-hand relationship within the preceding three (3) months. However, if Owner makes a habit of “card collecting” with everyone he or she meets and subsequently calling them, the FTC may consider this a form of telemarketing that is not subject to this exemption. Thus, if Owner engages in calling “acquaintances,” he or she must make such calls on an occasional basis only and not make this a routine practice.

e) In addition, Owners shall not use automatic telephone dialing systems relative to the operation of their Surge365 business. The term “automatic telephone dialing system” means equipment which has the capacity to: (i) store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and (ii) to dial such numbers.

3.6 – UNSOLICITED FAXES

Except as provided in this section, Owners may not use or transmit unsolicited faxes or use an automatic telephone dialing system relative to the operation of their Surge365 business. The term “automatic telephone dialing system” means equipment which has the capacity to: (i) store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and (ii) to dial such numbers. The term “unsolicited faxes” means the transmission via telephone facsimile of any material or information advertising or promoting the Company, its products, the marketing and compensation plan or any other aspect of the Company which is transmitted to any person, except that these terms do not include a fax: (i) to any person with that person’s prior express invitation or permission; or (ii) to any person with whom Owner has an established business or personal relationship. The term “established business or personal relationship” means a prior or existing relationship formed by a voluntary two way communication between the Owner and a person, on the basis of: (iii) an inquiry, application, purchase or transaction by the person regarding products or services offered by Owner or (iv) a personal or family relationship, which relationship has not been previously terminated by either party.

3.7 BLOGS, CHAT ROOMS, SOCIAL NETWORKS/MEDIA, ONLINE AUCTIONS AND OTHER ONLINE FORUMS

Vortex Owners may use online forums (hereinafter referred to as Social Media) to share information about their Vortex website. Social Media is defined as any form of electronic communication through which Vortex Owners create online communities to share information, ideas, personal messages and other content. Examples of Social Media include, but are not limited to discussion forums, blogs, Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Craig’s List, Monster, Pinterest and YouTube. External website must not contain disingenuous popup ads or promotions or malicious code. Decisions and corrective actions in this area are at the sole discretion of the Company. - b) Owners must use Social Media in a positive way and may never post negative comments about Surge365, its employees, other SBAs, Vortex Owners, Vortex Customers or other Direct Selling companies. Owners must respect others and their viewpoints. Personal insults, discriminatory remarks, ethnic slurs, obscenity or other negative references are not acceptable.

- c) All Owners are personally responsible for their own posts and all online activity related to Surge365.
- d) Owners may link to their replicated website within a post.
- e) Owners may only use authorized content on Social Media sites
- f) Owners must adhere to the branding, trademark and image usage policies as described in this Agreement.
- g) Owners must not post copyright photos without expressed consent from the owner. You may post, “pin” or repost photographs or videos provided through the Surge365 social media sites so long as the photo or video is not edited in any way. Descriptions of the photo or video must be in accordance with this Agreement.
- h) Owners may not post images of Vortex Customers savings nor may Owners make any price guarantee or savings claims.

- k) The Company name may only be used when followed by Independent Surge365 Owner (for example: James Johnson, Surge365 Independent Representative).
- l) SBAs must ensure postings are truthful, accurate and professional. Misleading, deceptive or false postings are prohibited.
- m) SBAs shall not communicate with anyone who places a negative post against the SBA, another SBA or Surge365.
- n) SBAs may post approved images of Membership and/or Vortex Customer pricing only. Surge365 approved savings images are available on the corporate blog site at <http://wavebreak.surge365.com/category/surge365approved/>. Make More. Travel More. Save More. ©2016 Surge365. All Rights Reserved. The Company reserves the right to request posts be taken down which the Company deems as inappropriate and which may, in the sole discretion of the Company, compromise or damage the reputation of the Company.

. Online auction sites are prohibited and should not be used to market, sell, advertise, or promote the Company’s products or services. Owners must disclose their relationship with Surge365 or identify themselves as a Surge365 Owner when making comments in regards to the Company products and services on all websites, message boards, social networking sites, blogs, etc. Offending SBAs will be subject to disciplinary action and/or termination. You agree that you will immediately take down a non-compliant post and/or site at the request of the Company. Appeals should be directed to the email address set forth in the policy addressing dispute resolutions. The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) provides the following guidelines to endorsements and testimonials: “Endorsements must reflect the honest opinions, findings, beliefs, or experience of the endorser. Furthermore, an endorsement may not convey any express or implied representation that would be deceptive if made directly by the advertiser.” Although SBAs may not consider their individual stories or testimonials to be endorsements, the new FTC Guidelines would suggest otherwise. Under the new guidelines, an endorsement is defined as any advertising message (including verbal statements, demonstrations, or depictions of the name, signature, likeness or other identifying personal characteristics of an individual or the name or seal of an organization) that would imply it is the opinion, experience, belief or finding of a party other than the sponsoring advertiser. All SBAs should read and become familiar with the FTC regulations, including these new guidelines, which can be found on www.ftc.gov (FTC 16 CFR Part 255). Please report violations of the Social Media guidelines to the Surge365 Compliance Department via email to

3.8 – DOMAIN NAMES AND E-MAIL ADDRESSES

3.9 – TRADEMARKS AND COPYRIGHTS

Owner will not promote his or her Surge365 business or use any of the Company's affiliated companies' or any third party's names, trade names, logos, sales materials, trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property, except in material as provided by the Company. The term "sales, advertising and training materials" includes but is not limited to; written, audio, CD, DVD, and flash materials and presentations as well as shirts, hats or other articles of clothing or accessories. Owner understands that unauthorized use or duplication of the Company's, its affiliated companies' and third parties' names, service marks, sales and training materials or copyrighted materials is a violation of federal and/or state law, the Agreement, and may result in termination of the Agreement. Each of the Company's and its affiliated companies' names, trademarks and service marks ("Proprietary Marks") and copyrighted materials are owned by the respective Company and/or their affiliated companies. The use of the Proprietary Marks and copyrighted materials must be in strict compliance with the Agreement. A corporation, limited liability corporation (LLC), partnership or trust (collectively referred to in this section as a "Business Entity") may apply to be an Owner by submitting its Certificate of Incorporation, Certificate of Organization, Partnership Agreement, Trust Documents, FEIN or other organizational documents requested by the Company (these documents are collectively referred to as the "Entity Documents") to the Company, along with a properly completed Business Entity Registration Form and W-9. When an Owner enrolls, the Entity Documents, Business Entity Registration Form and a W-9 must be submitted to the Company within thirty (30) days of the online enrollment. (If not received within the thirty (30) day period, the Business Owner Agreement may terminate.) The Business Entity Registration Form must be signed by all of the shareholders, members, partners or trustees of the Business Entity (each a "Member"). Members of the entity are jointly and severally liable for any indebtedness or other obligation to the Company. To prevent the circumvention of any portion of this Agreement, if an additional partner, shareholder, member, or other Business Entity affiliate is added to a business entity, the original applicant must remain as a party to the original Application and Agreement. If the original Owner wants to terminate his or her relationship with the Company, he or she must transfer or assign his or her business in accordance with this Agreement. If this process is not followed, the business shall be cancelled upon the withdrawal of the original Owner. All bonus and commission checks will be sent to the address of record for the original Owner. The Company may, at its discretion, require notarized documents before implementing any changes to an Owner business. Please allow thirty (30) days after the receipt of the request by the Company for processing. Please note: If a check is not cashed within twelve months, the funds revert back to the Company.

3.13 – CHANGES TO A BUSINESS ENTITY

A Vortex Owner may change its status under the same sponsor from an individual to a partnership, LLC, corporation or trust, or from one type of entity to another. There is a $25.00 fee for each change requested, which must be included with the written request and the completed Business Owner Application and Agreement and Entity Documents. Such changes shall be processed only once per year and must be submitted by November 30th to become effective on January 1st of the following year. In addition, Owners operating their businesses utilizing a Business Entity must notify the Company of the addition or removal of any officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members or business associates of the Business Entity.

3.14 – CANCELLATION AND RE-APPLICATION

An Owner may change his or her Sponsor by voluntarily cancelling his or her business by calling Customer Support at 618-655-2431 or by email to cancellations@surge365.com. The Owner must then remain inactive for four (4) full calendar months. Following the four (4) month period, the former Owner may reapply.

3.15 – UNAUTHORIZED CLAIMS AND ACTIONS - INDEMNIFICATION

Owners are fully responsible for all of his or her verbal and written statements made regarding the Company's products and services, which are not expressly contained in the official Company material. Owner agrees to indemnify the Company and Company's directors, officers, shareholders, employees, and agents, and hold them harmless from any and all liability including judgments, civil penalties, refunds, attorney fees, investigation costs, court costs, or lost business incurred by the Company as a result of unauthorized representations or actions. This provision shall survive the termination of the Agreement.

3.16 – COMMERCIAL OUTLETS

Owners may not sell the Company's products or services from a commercial outlet, nor may they display or sell the Company's products, services or literature in any retail or service establishment.

3.17 – TRADE SHOWS, EXPOSITIONS AND OTHER SALES FORUMS

Owners may display and/or sell the Company's products and services at most trade shows and professional expositions (such as Home and Garden or Boat Show). While at these events, marketing efforts must be confined to the registered Owner's booth. Before submitting a deposit to the event promoter, Owner must contact the Company's Marketing Department (compliance@surge365.com) in writing for conditional approval, as the Company policy is to authorize only one Surge365 exhibit per event. Final approval will be granted to those who submit an official advertisement of the event, a copy of the contract signed by both the Owner and the event official, and a receipt indicating a deposit for the booth has been paid.

Approval is given only for the event specified. Any requests to participate in future events must again be submitted to the Marketing Department. The Company further reserves the right to refuse authorization to participate at any function which it does not deem a suitable forum for the promotion of its products and services. Approval will not be given for swap meets, garage sales, flea markets or farmer's markets as these events are not conducive to the professional image the Company wishes to portray. Travel Trade Shows (Industry events, generally sponsored by Travel Vendors), however, are treated differently. Travel Trade Shows are strictly non-solicitation events. As a delegate at these events an Owner is prohibited from selling travel, or advertising any of the Company's products or services.

3.18 – ERRORS OR QUESTIONS

If an Owner has questions about or believes any errors have been made regarding cash rewards, bonuses, or charges, he/she must notify the Company in writing within sixty (60) days of the date of the purported error or incident in question. The Company will not be responsible for any errors, omissions or problems not reported to the Company within sixty (60) days.

The Company is not responsible for errors on the booking engine where third party suppliers are concerned, nor does the Company guarantee pricing displayed associated with technical errors.

3.19 – GOVERNMENTAL APPROVAL OR ENDORSEMENT

Neither federal, provincial, nor state regulatory agencies approve or endorse any direct selling or network marketing companies or programs. Therefore, Owners shall not represent or imply the Company or its services or products marketing plan have been "approved," "endorsed" or otherwise sanctioned by any government agency.

3.20 – IDENTIFICATION

Owners are required to provide a valid Social Security Number ("SSN"), or a valid Federal Employer Identification Number ("FEIN") to the Company on the Application and Agreement along with a fully executed W-9 if applicable. Upon enrollment, the Company will provide a unique Identification Number to the Owner by which he or she will be identified. This number will be used to place orders, and track cash rewards and bonuses. Owner's failure to supply a valid SSN or FEIN shall result in immediate dismissal.

3.21 – INCOME TAXES

Owners are responsible for paying local, state, provincial and federal taxes on any income generated as an Independent Contractor. If a Surge365 business is tax exempt, the Federal Tax Identification Number must be provided to the Company. Every year, the Company will provide an IRS Form 1099 MISC (Non-employee Compensation) earnings statement to each U.S. resident who: (i) Had earnings of over $600 in the previous calendar year; or (ii) Made purchases during the previous calendar year in excess of $5,000.

3.22 – INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS

Owners are independent contractors and are not purchasers of a franchise or a business opportunity. The Agreement between the Company and its Owners does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership, or joint venture between the Company and the Owner. Owners shall not be treated as an employee for his or her services or for federal or provincial or state tax purposes. All Owners are responsible for paying local, state, and federal taxes due from all compensation earned as an Owner of the Company. Owners are not employees of the Company and are not entitled to workers' compensation, unemployment benefits or any other employee type benefit from Company or by virtue of his or her Owner status with Company. Owners have no authority (expressed or implied), to bind the Company to any obligation. Owner shall establish his or her own goals, hours, and methods of sale, so long as he or she complies with the terms of the Agreement and applicable laws. The name of the Company and other names as may be adopted by the Company are proprietary trade names, trademarks and service marks of the Company. As such, these marks are of great value to the Company and are supplied to Owners for their use only in an expressly authorized manner. Use of the Company name on any item not produced by the Company is prohibited.

3.23 – OWNER NAME

All Owners may list themselves as an “Independent Vortex Website Owner” in the white or yellow pages of the telephone directory under their own name. No Owner may place telephone directory display ads using the Company's name or logo. Owners may not answer the telephone by saying the Company name, or in any other manner that leads the caller to believe he or she has reached corporate offices of the Company.

3.24 – INTERNATIONAL MARKETING

Because of critical legal, monetary and tax considerations, the Company must limit the resale of the Company's products and services to prospective customers located within the territories and countries that the Company has announced are officially opened for business. Moreover, allowing a few Owners to conduct business in markets not yet opened by the Company would violate the concept of affording everyone the equal opportunity to expand internationally. Accordingly, Owners are authorized to sell the Company products and services, and engage customers only in the countries in which the Company is authorized to conduct business, as announced in official Company literature. Owner may sell, give, transfer, or distribute the Company's products or sales aides only in the marketing material's intended country. In addition, Owner may not, in any unauthorized country: (i) conduct meetings; (ii) engage potential customers; or (iii) conduct any other activity for the purpose of selling the Company's products and services.

3.25 – CONFIDENTIALITY

“Confidential Information” means any and all information the Company designates as being confidential or which, under the circumstances surrounding disclosure, would reasonably be expected to be or ought to be treated as confidential. Confidential Information includes, without limitation, Owner customer lists and data, pricing, technical information, research, development, procedures, algorithms, data, designs, know-how, the marketing or promotion of any of the Company's products or services, the Company's business policies, practices or operations, information received from others that the Company is obligated to treat as confidential and information regarding the Company's respective parents, subsidiaries and affiliated agents. Confidential Information also includes supplier commission percentages and related information, commercial secrets, trade secrets, and any internal information of the Company's. Confidential Information is proprietary and confidential to the Company. It is provided to the Owner in strictest confidence for the limited use of the Owner to support and to further their business only. Owner hereby agrees that the use of the Company's customer lists or other lists or data constitutes a non-exclusive license between Owner and the Company for individual limited use thereof, as more fully set forth below. Lists, data and information relating to Owner or customers remain, at all times, the exclusive property of the Company and must be returned to the Company upon request. Owners receiving such a list, data or information, whether from the Company or from another source, agree:

- a) To limit the use of a list to the intended scope of the list and to exclusively advance Owner's Surge365 related business.
- b) To hold confidential and not disclose any portion thereof to any third party, including, but not limited to, existing Owners, competitors, and the general public. Any use or disclosure of lists, outside of those authorized, constitutes misuse, misappropriation, and a violation of the Agreements, and will cause irreparable harm to the Company.
- c) That, upon any violation of this section, Owner agrees that (1) the Company shall be entitled, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the Company at law or in equity, to injunctive relief, enjoining such use under applicable national or local law, and (2) He or she will retrieve and return to the Company all existing lists previously provided.
- d) That intended or unintended misuse of a list, data or information may be cause for termination of an Owner Agreement.
- e) That the obligations under this section will survive the termination or expiration of the Agreement.
- f) The Company reserves the right to pursue all appropriate remedies under applicable federal, state or local laws to protect its rights to the confidential information, proprietary information, and trade secrets of the Company; and any failure to pursue such remedies in one instance will not constitute a waiver of those rights by the Company in any other circumstances. Owners agree that he or she will not use such lists, data or information to compete with the Company or for any other purpose other than to promote his/her Surge365 related business activities. If Owners are found to be in violation of this section they may be subject to disciplinary action and, in addition, to all other rights and remedies available to the Company at law or in equity, the Company may seek remedies for compensatory and punitive damages, injunctive relief and for specific performance to the fullest extent the law makes available.

SECTION 4 – REQUIREMENTS

4.1 – ADHERENCE TO LAWS AND ORDINANCES

It is the responsibility of the Owner to research and obtain information on local laws, licensing or other requirements which may affect his or her business. Owners shall comply with all federal, provincial, state, and local laws and regulations in the conduct of their business. Many cities, counties and provinces have laws regulating certain home-based businesses. In some cases these ordinances are not applicable to Owner because of the nature of their business. However, Owner must obey those laws that do apply to them. If a city or county official tells an Owner that an ordinance applies to him or her, Owner shall be polite and cooperative, and immediately send a copy of the ordinance to the Compliance Department of the Company for immediate review.

4.2 – DIVORCE OR DISSOLUTION

a) If married persons or partners who share ownership in an Owner business obtain a divorce or wish to dissolve their partnership, corporation or limited liability business, the Company will continue to treat them pursuant to the controlling party being the designated primary applicant at the time of filing of a petition in a court of jurisdiction for divorce or dissolution, until such time as the Company receives written notice from both parties or an appropriate court order directing otherwise. The written notice must be signed by all parties and notarized.

b) Divorced persons or dissolved partnerships, corporations or limited liability companies must submit to the Company a certified copy of any legal judgment or decree, or jointly specify in writing to the Company, as to ownership and/or how future commission and bonus checks should be paid.

4.3 – ACTIONS OF HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS OR AFFILIATED INDIVIDUALS

If any member of an Owner's immediate household engages in any activity which, if performed by the Owner, would violate any provision of the Agreement, such activity will be deemed a violation by the Owner, and the Company may take disciplinary action pursuant to the Agreement against the Owner. Similarly, if any individual associated in any way with a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity (collectively "affiliated individual") violates the Agreement, such action(s) will be deemed a violation by the entity, and the Company may take disciplinary action against the entity.

4.4 – SALE, TRANSFER OR ASSIGNMENT OF A SURGE365 BUSINESS

Although a Surge365 business is a privately owned, independently operated business, the sale, transfer or assignment of such a business entity is not permitted. On occasion, Surge365 may grant an exception to this policy, which must be finalized and approved and may include fees and limitations. The Compliance Department will, in its sole and absolute discretion, approve or deny the sale, transfer or assignment.

If an Owner wishes to sell his or her business, the following criteria must be met:

- a) Protection of the existing line of sponsorship must always be maintained to ensure Surge365's business continues to be operated in that line of sponsorship.
- b) The buyer or transferee must become qualified as an Owner. If the buyer is an active Owner, he or she must first terminate his or her original business and wait four (4) calendar months before acquiring any interest in the new business.
- c) Before the sale, transfer or assignment can be finalized and approved by Surge365, any debt obligations the selling Owner has with Surge365 must be satisfied.
- d) The selling Owner must be in good standing and not in violation of any of the terms of the Agreement in order to be eligible to sell, transfer or assign Surge365 business.
- e) The sale, transfer or assignment must occur six (6) months after the business was obtained by the Owner.

f) Surge365's administrative fee for this type of business transfer is $360 and must be submitted to Surge365 with the appropriate supporting documentation. Prior to selling a Surge365 business, the selling Owner must notify Surge365's Compliance Department of his or her intent to sell their business. Upon completed execution of the purchase and sale agreement, the parties must submit copies of the same to the Compliance Department for review, along with the business transfer fee. Surge365 reserves the right to request additional documentation that may be necessary to analyze the transaction between the buyer and seller.

The Compliance Department will, in its sole and absolute discretion, approve or deny the sale, transfer or assignment within thirty (30) days after its receipt of all necessary documents from the parties.

If the parties fail to obtain Surge365's approval for the transaction, the transfer shall be voided at Surge365's option and the business transfer fee will be returned.

If the sale is allowed, the purchaser of the existing business will assume all the obligations of that position of the selling Owner.

An Owner who sells his or her business shall not be eligible to re-apply as an Owner for a period of at least four (4) full calendar months after the date of the sale.

4.5 – SEPERATION OF AN OWNER'S BUSINESS

The Company's Owners sometimes operate their business(es) as husband-wife partnerships, regular partnerships, an LLC, corporation, or a trust. At such time as a marriage may end in divorce, or a corporation, LLC partnership or trust (the latter four entities are collectively referred to herein as "entities") may dissolve, arrangements must be made to ensure any separation or division of the business is accomplished so as not to adversely affect the interests of the Company. If the separating parties fail to provide for the best interests of other Owners and the Company in a timely fashion, the Company will involuntarily terminate the Agreement. During the divorce or entity dissolution process, the parties must adopt one of the following methods of operation:

- a) One of the parties may, with consent of the other(s), operate their business pursuant to an assignment in writing whereby the relinquishing spouse, shareholders, partners or trustees authorize the Company to deal directly and solely with the remaining spouse or non-relinquishing shareholder, partner or trustee.
- b) The parties may continue to operate their business jointly on a "business-as-usual" basis, whereupon all compensation paid by the Company will be paid according to the status quo as it existed prior to the divorce filing or dissolution proceedings. This is the default procedure if the parties do not agree on the format set forth above.
- c) Under no circumstances will a Surge365 business of divorcing spouses or a dissolving business entity be divided. Similarly, under no circumstances will the Company split commission and bonus checks between divorcing spouses or members of dissolving entities. The Company will recognize only the one, original business and will issue only one commission check per the Company's business per commission cycle. Commission checks shall always be issued to the same individual or entity. In the event that parties to a divorce or dissolution proceeding are unable to resolve a dispute over the disposition of commissions and ownership of the business in a timely fashion as determined by the Company, the Agreement shall be involuntarily cancelled. If a former spouse has completely relinquished all rights in the original business pursuant to a divorce, he or she is thereafter free to enroll under any sponsor of his or her choosing. In the case of business entity dissolutions, the former partner, shareholder, member, or other entity affiliate who retains no interest in the business must wait four (4) calendar months from the date of the final dissolution before re-enrolling as an Owner. In either case, however, the former spouse or business affiliate shall have no rights to any former retail customers. They must develop the new business in the same manner as would any other new Owner. Please note: If a check is not cashed within twelve months, the funds revert back to the Company.

4.6 – SUCCESSION

Upon the death or incapacitation of an Owner, his or her business may be passed to his or her heirs. Appropriate legal documentation must be submitted to the Company to ensure the transfer is proper. Accordingly, Owner should consult an attorney to assist in the preparation of a will or other testamentary instrument. Whenever a business is transferred by a will or other testamentary process, the beneficiary acquires the right to collect all bonuses and commissions of the deceased or incapacitated provided the following qualifications are met.

The successor(s) must:

- a) Complete and execute an Agreement;
 - b) Comply with terms and provisions of the Agreement; and
 - c) Meet all of the qualifications for the deceased or incapacitated Owner's status.
- Bonus and commission checks of a business transferred pursuant to this section will be paid in a single check jointly to the devisees.

The devisees must provide the Company with an "address of record" to which all bonus and commission checks will be sent. If the business is bequeathed to joint devisees, they must form a business entity and acquire a Federal Taxpayer Identification Number. The Company will issue all bonus and commission checks and one 1099 to the business entity.

SECTION 5 – RESPONSIBILITIES OF OWNERS

5.1 – CHANGE OF ADDRESS OR TELEPHONE

To ensure timely delivery of products, support materials, and commission checks, it is critically important the Company's files are current. Street addresses are required for shipping materials as UPS cannot deliver to a Post Office Box. If an Owner is planning to move he or she must update any personal information via the "Back Office" function of the replicated website or send the new address and telephone numbers to the Company's Corporate Offices to the attention of the Surge365 Support Department as applicable. To guarantee proper delivery, two weeks advance notice must be provided to the Company on all changes.

5.2 – NON-DISPARAGEMENT

The Company wants to provide Owners with the best products, commission plan, and service in the industry. The Company values constructive criticisms and comments. All such comments should be submitted in writing to the Company's Support Department. While the Company welcomes constructive input, negative comments and remarks made in the field by Owners about the Company, its products or services serve no purpose other than to dampen the enthusiasm of the Company's other Owners. For this reason, and to set the proper example, Owners must not disparage, demean, or make negative remarks about the Company, other Owners, the Company's products and services or Company directors, officers, or employees.

5.3 – REPORTING POLICY VIOLATIONS

5.4 – VENDOR CONFIDENTIALITY/COMMUNICATIONS

The Company business relationships with its alliances, vendors, suppliers, associates or former employees within or outside the corporate workplace are confidential, proprietary, and not to be circumvented by either the Owner or the vendor. Owner may not contact any representative of any travel supplier or vendor of the Company. Owner shall not negotiate with vendors or suppliers in any industry on behalf of the Company, including, but not limited to, attempting to negotiate with any vendor or supplier for broker's fees, finder's fees, commissions or any other fees for arranging a possible transaction between the vendor and/or supplier and the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event Owner does arrange a transaction between the Company and a third party, such Owner will not be entitled to any brokers, finders, commission or other fee from the Company or any of its affiliated entities. The Company's vendor commission levels are confidential and proprietary and cannot be expressed to the public.

SECTION 6 – SALES REQUIREMENTS

6.1 – PRODUCT SALES

The Company's commission structure is based on the sale of the Company's products and services to end consumers. In order to earn commissions, Owners must guide customers to their website to book travel, purchase products, or to assist their customers in limited fashion as outlined in these policies, (as well as meet other responsibilities set forth in the Agreement) to be eligible for commissions. A customer may not be abandoned under any circumstances while a transaction is pending; the Owner must make themselves available for changes, cancellations or other questions or reasonable requests from the customer. It is extremely important to utilize the services of the Support Department if Owners or customers have questions about the purchase process. Feel free to contact the Support Department at anytime for assistance or questions.

SECTION 7 – BONUSES AND COMMISSIONS

7.1 – BONUS AND COMMISSION QUALIFICATIONS

An Owner must be active and in compliance with the Agreement to qualify for cash rewards. So long as an Owner complies with the terms of the Agreement and these Policies and Procedures, the Company shall pay cash rewards in accordance with the existing commission structure. Cash rewards are earned by Owners and payable only upon completion of product purchased and receipt of vendor commission by the Company. The minimum amount for which the Company will issue a check is $10.00. If commissions do not equal or exceed $10.00, the Company will accrue the commissions and bonuses until they total $10.00. A check will be issued once $10.00 has been accrued.

7.2 – ADJUSTMENT TO BONUSES AND COMMISSIONS

Owners receive cash rewards based on the actual sales and completion of products and services by the end consumers. When products or services are canceled no cash reward will be paid, regardless of the reason for cancellation. The Company will deduct from all checks issued a check issuance/data processing fee of $1.50.

7.3 – REPLACEMENT CHECKS

Upon request, Company will issue a replacement check for a lost or stolen check; however, a $15.00 service fee will be assessed on any request made within twenty-one (21) business days of the issue date of the check. Conversely, after twenty-one (21) business days a replacement check may be reissued at no cost to the Owner.

7.4 – RETURNED COMMISSION CHECKS

The Company shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to ensure Owners receive their commission checks. However, when a check is returned to the Company because an Owner has moved without providing the Company with a forwarding address or the check is returned or is not presented for payment for some other reason beyond the control of the Company, the check amount shall be credited to the Owner's account ninety (90) days after its date of issue and will be subject to a credit maintenance fee. All payments and credits from the Company that are not claimed or cashed within one (1) year of issuance will be rescinded and remain the property of the Company.

7.5 – REPORTS
